Hi Robert,

Can you let me know whether you received all of the payments?

Thanks,

What's the plan beyond tomorrow? Are you able to bring in any other money? Are you picking up your insurance check today?

Working on a game plan now before I commit to any number, as I want to make sure I can follow through. I will have an answer for you soon.

Hi Robert,

Admittedly, I am beyond frustrated with this bank situation. I have attached a screenshot (with the date & time stamp) showing the Zelle payment is still pending review after going to the branch and several phone calls today. It has become ridiculous. They claim it's on a fraud hold due to issuing two payments to the same recipient back-to-back and it is pending review from their "back office" to get it disbursed/released.

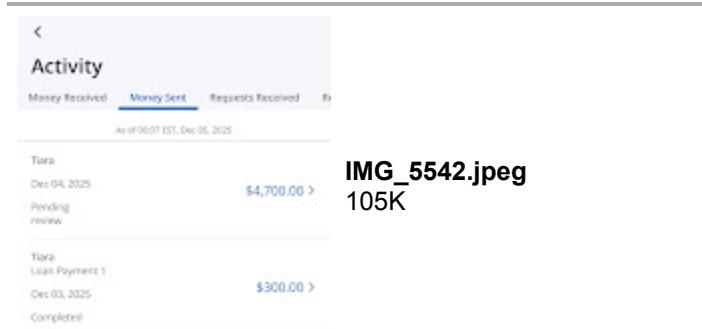

I am more than happy to get on a conference call with you and my banker in the morning so you can verify the payment is still pending review and out of my control. Additionally, if you'd like to speak to my attorney (or even the insurance company) tomorrow to confirm any information related to the insurance check — I can coordinate a call. I just want you to feel comfortable and hear it directly from the source.

Robert, I want to respectfully request one more extension until next week while I figure out a full game plan for all of the payments due and going forward. This will allow time for these pending payments to clear as well. If you prefer I bring you cash tomorrow, I am happy to do so.

I am extremely stressed and I'm doing everything I possibly can to make this work. You have been extremely patient and understanding — it is greatly appreciated. Can you please help me out here by postponing the sale date a few more days? I'm so sorry this is happening... it seems like nothing can go right with Chase bank!!!!

Thanks for your consideration,
Cole

Hi Robert,

Sorry for the delayed response — I wanted to get accurate information before getting back to you. Please see the attached email I sent to opposing counsel and the response that the check is being overnighted (I was told it was mailed a week and a half ago — not happy they lied).

Supposedly, the check will be available for pickup tomorrow. I will immediately take a photo of the check and send it to you along with proof it was deposited. You are more than welcome to call my Attorney to confirm this if you'd like.

Assuming there is no extended hold, can you please give me until Friday of this week to initiate a wire of $50K once the deposit clears? I'm so sorry, this was supposed to have been received weeks ago. I am not trying to give you the run-around. This is not intended to be a delay tactic.

Thanks,
Cole

I'll extend the sale till this coming Friday, but we need a conclusion to this by then, at least on one large payment. There are no other promises or guarantees herein, we reserve all our rights under the loan documents. Thanks.

Anything new here on your insurance check or other capital events?

Are you willing to extend the sale a few days in view of my situation? My Attorney sent you a letter earlier explaining the conundrum I am currently in.
